

PRODUCT INFORMATION

FOOD

All Yaoh products –both food and bodycare- contain organic hemp seed in some form or another. The hemp seed is one of the most nutritious seeds available, with a perfect ratio of Omega 3's and 6's for sustainable human health as well as a full trace mineral spectrum, vitamins and complete proteins. All our bodycare products contain organic hemp seed oil, which is absorbed directly into the skin.

Yaoh Organic Hemp Food Products

Yaoh has a variety of hemp food products available, all of which are made from the finest quality organic hemp seed grown in China.

Whole Hemp Seeds – Available in pack sizes from 125gms to 25 kilos.

De-Hulled Hemp Seed – Hemp seeds with the shells removed to leave just the white meat of the seed. Ideal for sprinkling on salads, smoothies etc.

Raw Hemp Seed Snack Bars – Available in three flavours, our award winning snack bars are vegan, organic, raw, gluten-free, and with no added sugar, making them the ideal choice for a 21st century healthy lifestyle.

Hemp Seed Oil – Available in 250ml and 500ml bottles, our hemp oil is pressed fresh from the finest quality seeds before being bottled, nitrogen flushed, sealed and chilled.

Hemp Protein Powder – With a protein content of 48.5% and a low fat ratio, this gorgeous powder is packed to the rafters with nutrients and is a genuine natural superfood. Very tasty, can be used in smoothies, soups and stews.

Hemp Milk Maker – This amazing machine turns 100gms of hemp seed onto a litre of hemp milk in a matter of minutes. Easy to clean and operate, the machine can also be used with cashew nuts, almonds, and any other seeds or nuts to make a tasty, nutritious alternative to dairy milk.
